Information we receive from other sources

We may receive information about you if you use any of the other websites we operate or the other services we provide. In this case we will have informed you when we collected that data that it may be shared internally and combined with data collected on this website. We are also working closely with third parties (including, for example, business partners, sub-contractors in technical, payment and delivery services, advertising networks, analytics providers, search information providers, credit reference agencies) and may receive information about you from them.

2.2 Before you disclose to us the personal information of another person, you must obtain that person's consent to both the disclosure and the processing of that personal information in accordance with this policy.

3. Using personal information

3.1 Personal information submitted to us through our website will be used for the purposes specified in this privacy policy

3.2 Information you give to us We may use your personal information to:

(a) provide you with the information about other products and other services that you request from us;

(b) notify you about changes to our services;

(c) ensure that content from our website is presented in the most effective manner for you and for your computer;

(d) send you non-marketing commercial communications;

(e) send you email notifications that you have specifically requested;

(f) send you our email newsletter, if you have requested it (you can inform us at any time if you no longer require the newsletter);

Information we collect about you. We may use this information to:

(a) administer our website and business;

(b) personalise our website for you;

(c) enable your use of the services available on our website;

(d) send you marketing communications relating to our business we think may be of interest to you where you have specifically agreed to this, by email or similar technology (you can inform us at any time if you no longer require marketing communications);

(e) provide third parties with statistical information about our users (but those third parties will not be able to identify any individual user from that information);

(f) deal with enquiries and complaints made by or about you relating to our website;

(g) verify compliance with the terms and conditions governing the use of our website.

Information we receive from other sources.

We may combine this information with information you give to us and information we collect about you. We may use this information and the combined information for the purposes set out above (depending on the types of information we receive).

3.3 We will not, without your express consent, supply your personal information to any third party for the purpose of their or any other third party's direct marketing.

4. Disclosing personal information

4.1 We may disclose your personal information to any of our employees, officers, insurers, professional advisers, agents, suppliers or subcontractors insofar as reasonably necessary for the purposes set out in this policy.

4.2 We may disclose your personal information to any member of our group of companies (this means our subsidiaries, our ultimate holding company and all its subsidiaries)..

4.3 We may share your information with selected third parties including:

(a) Business partners, suppliers and sub-contractors for the performance of our website and services.

(b) Advertisers and advertising networks that require the data to select and serve relevant adverts to you and others (if applicable).

(c) Analytics and search engine providers that assist us in the improvement and optimisation of our website.

4.4 We may disclose your personal information:

(a) to the extent that we are required to do so by law or in order to enforce or apply our terms of website use and other agreements or to protect the rights, property or safety of our customers and others. This includes exchanging information with other companies and organisations for the purpose of fraud protection and credit risk reduction;

(b) if Playjam or substantially all of its assets are acquired by a third party, in which case personal data held by it about its customers will be one of the transferred assets; and

(c) to the purchaser (or prospective purchaser) of any business or asset that we are (or are contemplating) selling.

5. Where we store your personal data

5.1 Information that we collect may be stored and processed in and transferred between any of the countries in which we operate in order to enable us to use the information in accordance with this policy. This may be a country outside of the European Economic Area (EEA).

5.2 Information that we collect may be transferred to the following countries which do not have data protection laws equivalent to those in force in the EEA : the United States of America.

5.3 This information may also be processed by staff operating outside the EEA who work for us or for one of our suppliers. Such staff maybe engaged in, among other things, the fulfilment of your order, the processing of your payment details and the provision of support services. By submitting your personal data, you agree to this transfer, storing or processing. We will take all steps reasonably necessary to ensure that your data is treated securely and in accordance with this privacy policy.

5.4 5.4 You expressly agree to the transfers of personal information described in this Section 5.

6. Retaining personal information

- 6.1 Personal information that we process for any purpose or purposes shall not be kept for longer than is necessary for that purpose or those purposes.
- 6.2 Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Section 6, we will retain documents (including electronic documents) containing personal data:
- (a) to the extent that we are required to do so by law;
 - (b) if we believe that the documents may be relevant to any ongoing or prospective legal proceedings; and
 - (c) in order to establish, exercise or defend our legal rights (including providing information to others for the purposes of fraud prevention and reducing credit risk).

7. Security of personal information

- 7.1 Unfortunately, the transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure.
